MIRAMAR LANDING RECOGNIZED FOR PROTECTING THE CHESAPEAKE BAY

Owings Mills, MD (October 30, 2017) – Tidewater Property Management (<http://www.tidewaterproperty.com>) is pleased to announce that its client community of Miramar Landing has been recognized by Gunpowder Valley Conservancy for its efforts in protecting and restoring the Chesapeake Bay.

Millions of dollars in federal grants are issued to communities each year with the intent to improve the health of the Chesapeake Bay. During the past two years, Miramar Landing has utilized grant funding to implement Bay-Wise landscaping practices, a project in which environmental education campaigns are utilized to offer social marketing strategies, including free educational workshops and a cost-share program to mobilize residents to install rain barrels, rain gardens, Bayscapes, and micro-bioretenion systems to reduce storm water runoff.

Community Association Manager of Miramar Landing, Matthew Merckel, states, "It's amazing to see one of our communities being recognized for its hard work. The Board President, Purnell Glenn, and I have put in a lot of time and effort to acquire grant funding to have a project such as this come together." On September 19th a press event was held at Miramar Landing, co-hosted by Gunpowder Valley Conservancy, the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation, and the Environmental Protection Agency to award recipients with this year's Chesapeake Bay Stewardship Fund grants that support efforts to protect and restore the Chesapeake Bay.
