TIDEWATER TO MANAGE COMMON INTEREST COMMUNITIES IN VIRGINIA

Owings Mills, MD, December 22, 2015 – Tidewater Property Management (<http://www.tidewaterproperty.com>) announced today that it is bringing its financial and property management services to the State of Virginia. Tidewater was licensed as a Common Interest Community Manager by the Department of Professional and Occupational Regulation of the Commonwealth of Virginia earlier this year.

“Over the last twenty-six years, Tidewater has given its clients peace of mind in managing both residential and commercial properties, and we are excited to further grow our presence and involvement in the Mid-Atlantic region by bringing our experience and resources to Northern Virginia,” said Gianna M. Rahmani, Vice President of Tidewater Property Management. “With the addition of Virginia and Tidewater’s recent expansion over the Chesapeake Bay Bridge, Tidewater is staying true to its vision of Progress in Motion, as we put our strong reputation and skilled team of professionals before us. Also, as active members of the Washington Metro Chapter of the Community Associations Institute (CAI), we are proud to incorporate its three service areas into Tidewater’s service blanket.”

Since 1989, Tidewater has offered exceptional customer service and personal care to Mid-Atlantic property owners, and we continue to work hard to ensure that our clients' expectations are exceeded. Our team of experienced and knowledgeable professionals are here to support you in the management of common interest communities, including community, condominium, and homeowners associations, rentals and investment property leasing and management, commercial properties management, property repairs and maintenance, and real estate sales. We have multiple locations serving the Baltimore, DC Metro, Chesapeake Bay, Pennsylvania and Virginia areas. For more information, visit www.tidewaterproperty.com.
